

Steve Winwood, Coloured Rain

Yesterday I was a young boy
Searching for my way
Not knowing what I wanted
Living life from day to day
'till you came along
There was nothing but an empty space and a pain

Feels like coloured rain
Tastes like coloured rain

Bring on coloured rain
Yeah!

I can see a sail of changing
Filling with surprise
United with a feeling
Bringing love into my eyes
Till you came along
There was nothing but an empty space and a pain
