Steve Winwood, Real Love

In my life there was emptiness Where I was going I couldn't guess Then one day into my life you came And from then on nothing seemed the same You gave me strength when I thought I could be wrong Hey now I know right here is where I belong - with your Real love to hold on to Real love to pull me through And I know with all my heart Here I'm gonna stay Here I'll always stay inside your real love You make things right with no uncertainty I know this kind of love will always be realized And I'm now quite sure that Real love is what we all are looking for Now I'm ready to be just what you want me to With you right her to guide me through - I need you Just to have a soul mate To make things right when all senses fail True love is a hard found thing Now I feel it and I need it always
