

Stina Nordenstam, His Song

...there she goes
Waiting for her love

There she goes
Waiting for her love
There she goes waiting for the big surprise
That'll change her world
That'll change her world
That'll change her world
That'll change my world

I know that I can't have you
I know that you'll never be mine
I know that and that's why I choose you
Cause this is real life...

See how I'm smiling
Well you should be surprised cause I
Used to get sad just by talking about him
It's not that I forgot him
Tonight he was here with me saying
He'd changed his mind he'd decided to stay

It's a dream
There's no need to tell me so
It's a dream
Don't you think I know
But I just never noticed
That it could be this close
From being dreaming to being alive
From having nothing to having it all
From being in love to being poor

I skip that lipstick
I don't care what I wear today
My thoughts are with him
When I walk out in the street
People were staring
Then I felt my face was wet
I didn't notice I'd started to cry

I'm thru with travelling
I know now what I was after I stay right here now I've found what I searched for
I know he doesn't love me
No he doesn't care much
Don't seem to stop him from killing me slowly

It's a dream
There's no need to tell me so
It's a dream
Don't you think I know
From being in love to being poor
