Sting, Deathwish

Written by stewart copeland, andy summers & amp; sting

Deathwish in the fading light Headlight pointing through the night Never thought I'd see the day Playing with my life this way

Gotta keep my foot right down If I had wings I'd leave the ground

Burning in the outside lane People think that I'm insane

The day I take a bend too fast Judgement that could be my last I'll be wiped right off the slate Don't wait up 'cause I'll be late I'll be late...
