

Stone Sour, Bedanya

Self-destructive lessons
I can't seem to learn
I can't escape but it's none of your concern
See me in the corner crying in my hand
I can't explain but then you don't understand

You replace my reasons with a lie
All I want to do is deal with pain
Let me take a beating for a while
Shouldn't have to take it from a child

You want possession
You need aggression
You bleed - obsession
Here's my answer: "Fuck you"

Trash me
Mash me
But I'll still come out of here
I'll go down fighting and beat you out of spite
You have nothing that I'd ever want or need
Even though others have fertilized your seed

When did everyone become controlled?
Even your integrity is cold
Blame your discrepancies on me
And what the hell am I supposed to be?

You want possession
You need aggression
You bleed - obsession
Go away

Cos I'm no-one
Stay with it
Do what must be done
I'm no-one
I save my strength
Until it's time to run

Wait - go

I - I can make it go away
I - I can make it go away
I - I can make it go away
I - I can make it go away

I - I can make it go away
I - I can make it go away
I - I can make it go away
I - I can make it go away

I will never compromise a thing
I can feel your fingers weakening
And I will wait impatiently 'til then
We can be whatever once again

You want possession
You need aggression
Go away

Cos I'm no-one
Stay with it

Do what must be done
I'm no-one
I save my strength

I don't need your choice
Do you fucking want me?
Come and get me!
