

Stone Sour, Covetous Me

C'mon

I have nothing for you
It's just another ploy
Bring your love to my lips
I can't defeat your choice

You see nothing new
You see nothing true
You have nothing to
And if I have my way I'll have you too

Now before I take you
You've got to come to me
Bring your lies - you're fatal
Constrict to set you free

You see nothing new
You see nothing true
You have nothing to
And if I have my way I'll have you too

Give me what I need to have
Have you nothing left to give
Give me what I need to have
Have you nothing left to give
Give me what I need to have
Have you nothing left to give
Give me what I need to have
Have you nothing left to give

Give me what I need to have
Have you nothing left to give
Give me what I need to have
Have you nothing left to give
Give me what I need to have
Have you nothing left to give
Give me what I need to have
Have you nothing left to give
