

Stone Sour, Inherited

Yeah

I'm a little secret
Water brought in joy
Still I felt it lingering
I knew I didn't have a choice
I watched his sweet destruction
He loves (?)
He got what he deserved but

The motherfuckin' (?)
And it was given to me now
Lying ? to his son
And I don't think I like this
Can't be hereditary
Now my man's gone despairin'
I think I've gone and lost my mind
I'm warning you

Woah, it was given to me now
Woah, given to me
Woah, it was given to me now
Woah
And I don't think I like this

Now I know the secret
Nothing beats denial
I can feel it festering
I think I'll let it grow a while
I love my sweet destruction
I live for their consumption
I'll get what I deserve cos'

The motherfuckin' (?)
And it was given to me now
Lying ? to his son
And I don't think I like this

This wasn't supposed to happen
And I still don't know what happened
(?) me to you
I thought I warned you

Woah, it was given to me now
Woah, given to me
Woah, it was given to me now
Woah
And I don't think I like this

Give it to me

Woah, it was given to me now
Woah, given to me
Woah, it was given to me now
Woah
