

Stone Sour, Suicide Note

So close but so far away
Never wanted this anyway
If yesterday brings a better tomorrow
I'm never gonna see the day
And I, I am leaving home
And if I never return
You don't have to remember me
My heart is broken
My scars split open
So this knife will be my god
And take me from this world
And I, I am leaving home
And if I never return
You don't have to remember me
Take me from this world
Take me from this pain
Take me by the hand
Make it go away
And I, I am leaving home
And if I never return
You don't have to remember me
And I, I am leaving home
And if I never return
You don't have to remember me
No, don't have to remember
You don't have to remember
