

Stormwarrior, Nighte Of The Storme

Once they came, divine mission to fulfill
Strange book in their hands, oh surrender or be kill'd
Pave way for our Lorde, turn your back on your gods
We're the saviors of this world, the redeemers of your hearts

They try to force insidious laws on us
They may take our lives but not our pride
Together we're strong enough to take away their ground
And I won't surrender to their lies

Stand up and fighte, never yelde to their dark raging force
Scream for revenge, it's the nighte of the storme
Stand up and fighte, hear the sounde of rebellion arise
This is the march of the damn'd in the nighte of the storme

They want us praying to a foreign god
They want us nail'd to the cross, awful and blind
But we're standing all together, as a crowd of steele
We were chosen by the gods, no one will make us kneele

They try to force insidious laws on us
They may take our lives but not our pride
Together we're strong enough to take away their ground
And I won't surrender to their lies

Stand up and fighte, never yelde to their dark raging force
Scream for revenge, it's the nighte of the storme
Stand up and fighte, hear the sounde of rebellion arise
This is the march of the damn'd in the nighte of the storme

Tonighte, we stande in union as one
Welcome the nighte of the storme
This is the march of the damn'd
Here in the nighte of the storme
Now we're screaming for bloode, screaming for deathe
In the nighte of the storme
The rebel at hearte, straight out of hell, onward we'll ride
In the nighte of the storme

In the nighte of the storme
Welcome the nighte of the storme...
