

Stratovarius, Speed Of Light

Today is just another day
of my life too short to live.
I should have somekind of meaning a destiny to believe in before I go to sleep.

I find some pictures of a time
when everything was still so fine.
Although the years have passed by.

I will give it all I have inside...everything.

I'm away lost in my thoughts,
everyday my life goes by at the speed of Light.
