

Stratovarius, Winter

Silence is all I hear
Blackness fills my world
Midwinter days and lonely nights
Depression takes over
My frozen mind

Morning starts a new day
Dawning nowhere to be seen
Oh won't you break
My chains and let me go
Free as a bird in the sky

Winter blows colder
I'm feeling older
Visions of darkness
Breaking the silence
Winter comes closer
I'm growing older
Light fades away
I'm here to stay

I'm telling you, no one could ever take your place
Open your eyes and you will see

Winter blows colder
I'm feeling older
Visions of darkness
Breaking the silence
Winter blows colder
I'm growing older
Light fades away
I'm here to stay
