

Stray Cats, Baby Blue Eyes

You're baby blue eyes that you promised tonight have got me in a mess

Why don't you do right and quit try to fight everytime we get this stress

Your sugar daddy and your money well ain't gonna treat you right You better do something baby whether wrong or right Oh baby tonight's the night

They say that love is a wonderfull game and it happens everyday Oh why oh why did you pick on me and make things happen this way

You got stars in one eye and lies in the other. Now which am I gonna believe

whether wrong or right
