

Stray Cats, Baby Blue Eyes

You're baby blue eyes that you promised tonight have got me in a mess

Why don't you do right and quit try to fight everytime we get this stress

Your sugar daddy and your money well ain't gonna treat you right You better do something baby
whether wrong or right
Oh baby tonight's the night

They say that love is a wonderfull
game and it happens everyday Oh why oh why did you pick on me and make things happen this way

You got stars in one eye and lies in the other. Now which am I gonna believe

You better do something baby
whether wrong or right

game and it happens everyday
