Stray Cats, Bring It Back Again

Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again I cruise around with the radio on Make me feel alright Make me feel alright Wide open highway and the sun going down Make me feel alright Make me feel alright I grab my guitar and pick out a song You wear that pretty dress we never could go wrong We had no money but never seem to care Our love took us everywhere Bring it back again Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again Bring it back again I cruise around in a rag top ride Make me feel alright Make me feel alright But now I got no one by my side Make me feel alright Make me feel alright Though I never share my memories No one by my side to comfort me I need your little hand to hold in mine Got to hold you all the time Bring it back again Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again Bring it back again Is it any wonder, why I love you so Oh you were my first love When your arms met mine You just stole my heart for all time Bring it back again Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again Bring it back again I cruise around with the radio on Make me feel alright Make me feel alright Wide open highway with the sun going down Make me feel alright Make me feel alright Though I know I'm the only one to blame I've had enough of this sorrow and pain I know that deep down you still feel the same Bring me your love back again Bring it back again Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again Bring it back again Come on bring it back again Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again Bring it back again Come on bring it back again Bring it back again
