

Stray Cats, Cross That Bridge

Well I'm gonna pack my suitcase
Gonna hop right in that car

Don't worry baby you know I won't go far

Gonna cross that bridge

And found out what's going down

New York Town

And once I cross that bridge
You know I'll never turn around

I'm gonna split this town
Well I'm going to Manhattan

Don't want no woman trying to hold me down

Gonna cross that bridge
And found out what's going down
And once I cross that bridge

You know I'll never turn around

Yeah well

Well I'm cruisin' down Grand Central

Or maybe southern state

Don't worry baby you know I won't be late

I'm gonna cross that bridge

And found out what's going down
And once I cross that bridge

You know I'll never turn around
And once I cross that bridge

You know I'll never turn around

No turnaround

And once I cross that bridge

You know I'll never turn around
Never turnaround
