

Street Angels, Another Day

Street Angels - Another Day

Why did you leave me,
Why did you leave me all on my own
Out in the cold,
Why did you deceived me,
How could i know the love was gone...
I carried on...

Another day,
That i'm feeling all alone,
Another day,
That i'm standing on my own,
How could know,
You let me go.
Another day,
That i'm feeling all alone,
Another day,
That i'm standing on my own,
How could know,
I can let go.

Do you think that is easy,
Do you think that i'm stronger on my own...
Left in the cold.
So you'd better believe me.
I was a fool to carry on,
I should have known.

Another day,
That i'm feeling all alone,
Another day,
That i'm standing on my own...
How could know,
You let me go,
Another day,
That i'm feeling all alone,
Another day that i'm standing on my own,
How could know,
I can let go.

Why did you leave me,
Why did you leave me all on my own...
Out in the cold,

Another day,
That i'm feeling all alone,
Another day,
That i'm standing on my own...
How could know,
You let me go.
Another day,
That i'm feeling all alone,
Another day that i'm standing on my own,
How could know,
I can let go.
