

Street Dogs, Unions And The Law (Alternate Vers

Like Bob said the times are a changing
Unfortunately for us bossman's rearranging
Doesn't care about the wife and kids
But only the gold that is his
Won't hear eleventh hour underbids
Or part with the assets that he thinks are his
Only goes by the manual
To get his increase and human pride

Not even aware that his moral code has died

Unions and the law... What's wrong with being treated fairly
Unions and the law... We've got to defend ourselves somehow

Society's a much faster place now
Seems like standing up lost out somehow
Another composer once said
I can't stand up for falling down
Got to rise up and be accounted for
Maybe that sentiment will arrive
Back in town but only time
Itself will reveal that concept

In ending this rant we'll be idealistic

(Chorus)

Unions and the law... What's wrong with being treated fairly
Unions and the law... We've got to defend ourselves somehow
Unions and the law... What's wrong with being treated fairly
Unions and the law... We've got to defend ourselves somehow

Like Bob said the times are a changing
Unfortunately for us bossman's rearranging
Doesn't care about your wife and kids
But only the gold that is his
