

Styx, You Need Love

(Dennis DeYoung)

bah bah bah bah bya ba ba dada
bah bah bah bah bya ba ba dada da welcome my friends

to a place that may seem most disturbing
quite unnerving

lend me your dreams
and we'll add what we need to be free
terminally

we'll fly to a spot where I know there is not
any sorrow
no tomorrow

people just laugh
cause they know how it feels to have loved
and be loved

don't you worry
ain't no need to hurry
all you really need
is love

bah bah bah bah bah

now you may say
tell me more of this place so inviting and exciting

here and above
children love without doubt and can be
they can be

listen my friends
carefully to direction
to get there
and you know where

love is the place
skewed to matter and space for us all
for us all

all you really need
is love, love, love
