

Sub-Urban Tribe, Dog Days

She crashed in my room pushed her breast in my face she said "you wanna bite, boy?" started swinging her waist Hot summer hits you like a hammer the heat is overwhelming like junkies crowd goes around seeking for relief waiting it to ease
please let this be a dream
Dog days
She came all over me I threw her to the floor she said "you are a creep, boy!" before slamming the door Dog days
give a mind it's own play it takes over the lust for life again
