

Subb, Better Than Me

Here i go again, starting over again
I'm falling in love, well oh so in love
I know i should not, i know i'll change a lot
But that's the way it is and the way i am
New fun, new girl, new friends, and new faces,
There's so many good things about a girlfriend
My life really changed and rearranged
But i am clueless now, how long will it last?

I hope she'll never let me down
When she'll find another one better than me
Cuz you know, i care
I just wanna make sure that she'll understand

I'm mature, insecure and 21 for sure
And i'm doing things that usually i don't
Sometimes it's good, often is bad
I don't wanna talk about those (bring the bass line)
We're lovers, we're friends, we're the perfect blend
We have each other and i hope for ever
If love flies away, we'll catch it anyway (x2)

Here i go again, starting over again
I'm falling in love, well so in love!
I know i should not, i know i'll change a lot
Enough to go somewhere
Up in the mountains where the mountains are so high
I just wanna go with you where the mountains are so high(!)
