

Subb, Drunk Once Again

I've been drunk before
But I never thought, it was this bad
With every sip I take
I see you turn and walk away
It's like the day we met
I was drunk and you helped me stand
I wished you weren't there
To see me so deprived

[Chorus]

And she said to me
And she said to me
Get the fuck away
Get the fuck away, YOU'RE DRUNK!
Good friends are correctly cleaning me up
And others just started to laugh at me
I'm so damn drunk, it's not the same
I couldn't remember my own name
But when she looks at me
I feel like dropping everything
Next morning, I regret it
But it's too late she's just leaving...

[Bridge]

[Chorus]
