

Subb, Grey

Pick it up fights, don't know who's wrong or right
Your senseless battle scares me sometimes
Mass racism, driven with terrorism
Who said that's the way to rule the world?

Destroying our lives, destroying ourselves
Destroying the hope that we are building

I don't wanna stay here, can't take it anymore
Don't wanna die waiting for the Grey race
This perfect class of harmony, racism free
How long can my discontentment last?
