

Subb, Suit Yourself

I'll take it here, I'll take it anywhere
There's not enough place for us all to share
You might as well go on and face the day
Just face the fact that no one else would stay
Suit yourself there's no one else to blame
You're always cheating, but you never wanted shame
Can't beat the odds, you're always proven right
Can't stay too long, there's just another fight
I'm O.K....I'm O.K.
You're O.K....you're O.K.
I'll find your way...find your way
You'll find my way...
