

Subb, Twenty One

If you ask me
If you ask me i will just deny it
Just like nothing ever happened to us now
This time it's real
This time i will follow my own advice
And i will weigh the words that might flow through my mouth
Twenty one just inches from perfection
If you only knew just what your going to do
Twenty one im never far behind
Keep this place warm
If i should fall or leave for a moment you know i will be back whenever you need me
Trust this feeling
Trust this feeling even if you doubt me
I wont be the one who will let you down
