

Sublim, What If We Could Change The World

How many times did you say
We can't go on this way?
How many times did you say
We can't think in present tense?

Because what if we could change the world?

Day is not over yet
Things always change
I think you've had enough
While everything is the same

Because what if we could change the world?