

Sublime, Ain't No Prophet

I ain't no prophet
I don't wanna cure no damn disease
But would you marry me anyways?
If I was on my knees?
I'm goin' through my time of change
In my time of need
In love love love
Whatever...
So I thought to myself
I'm gonna marry into wealth
Gonna take everything that she's got up
And keep it for myself oh oh oh
She said to me
"I don't like what I see"
And I said to her
"I don't even know your name"
And she said to me
"I don't like what I see"
I said to her
"I don't even fuckin' care"
I ain't no prophet
Don't wanna cure no damn disease
Would you marry me anyways?
If I was on my knees?
I'm goin' through my time of change
In my time of need
What I want you got it
What I need is something that's not right*
She said to me
"I don't like what I see"
And I said to her
"I don't even know your name"
And she said to me
"I don't like what I see"
I said to her
"I don't even fuckin' care"
*Not sure
