Sublime, April 29, 1992 (Miami)

(I don't know if you can, but can you get an order for Ons, that's O-N-S, Junior Market, the address is 1934 East Aneheim, all the windows are busted out, and it's like a free-for-all in here and uh the owner should at least come down here and see if he can secure his businessif he wants to)

April 26th, 1992 There was a riot on the streets Tell me where were you? You were sittin' home watchin' your TV While I was participating in some anarchy

First spot we hit it was my liquor store I finally got all that alcohol I can't afford With red lights flashin' time to retire And then we turned that liquor store into a structure fire.

Next stop we hit it was the music shop It only took one brick to make that window drop Finally we got our own p.a. Where do you think I got this guitar that you're hearing today? ey!

(Call fire at ??? mobile station at Alamedas and Anahiem, its, ah, flaming up good) (10-4 Alamedas and Anahiem) Homicide, never doin' no time!

When we returned to the pad to unload everything It dawned on me that I need new home furnishings So once again we filled the van until it was full Since that day my livin' room's been more comfortable Cause everybody in the hood has had it up to here It's getting harder and harder and harder each and every year Some kids went in a store with their mother I saw her when she came out she was gettin some pampers They said it was for the black man, they said it was for the mexican And not for the white man But if you look at the streets It wasn't about Rodney King It's bout this fucked up situation and these fucked up police It's about coming up And staying on top And screamin' 187 on a mother fuckin' cop It's not written on the paper it's on the wall National guard??! Smoke from all around!

(Units- Units be advised of an attempt 211 to arrest now at 938 Temple, 9-3-8 Temple, many subjects with bats trying to get inside the CB's house...they're trying to kill him) As long as I'm alive, I'm a live illegal.
