

Sublime, Dating Game

First time I saw you was High School, like an angel you were so damn beautiful, Just wanna ask you out, its all I ever dream about wanna ask if you mind if I wasn't so shy, wasn't so shy.

But I waited too long and you have a boyfriend, and I wish I could go back and have a second chance, but I waited too long and you found your self a man, now I'm left only to dream, of holding your-holding your hand

Wish I had another chance, a chance to make things right dont know what I want by my side, when I talk my words, just hide dont know why i get so nervous and tied, nervous and tied

But I waited too long and you have a boyfriend,
and I wish I could go back and have a second chance,
but I waited too long and you found your self a man, now I'm left only to dream, of holding your hand.
