

Submersed, At First Sight

You're looking so beautiful standing in the light I've waited for this night for my whole life
I reach to grab your hand
I take it into mine
Our hearts become numb
Our hearts have become one
And I'll wait for you
If our worlds falling down
crumbling to the ground
And I'll wait for you
If our worlds falling down
crumbling to the ground

With this honor
On weak knees I stand strengthened by your hands

As the music starts to play that look upon your face I see whats in your eyes, you see whats inside mine
We see our life together we feel it as we dance Theres rhythm in our love its rhythm from above
And Ill wait for you
If our worlds falling down
crumbling to the ground
And Ill wait for you

With this dance our life begins
With these steps love has no end
With this dance our life begins
And Ill wait, and Ill wait
