

Suburban Phlight, Lost

I touch this skin the feelings strange
I don't know myself but you know my name
I'd give all of my heart to feel something
Sell all of myself just to be something

Cry out loud
Shout it out
Tear these fucking walls right down
Where's my north
Where's my south
I'll close my mind while you run your mouth

A welcomed sight of those unknown
Shutting out hearts close to the soul
And I've been lost down this road
And I can't seem to find my way home

Cry out loud
Shout it out
Tear these fucking walls right down
Where's my north
Where's my south
I'll close my mind while you run your mouth

And all things fade
Falling further farther everyday
And all I can say
Is I'm lost

I am lost
Never found
Unhinged
