

Suede, Astrogirl

A strange relationship has started
A strange relationship indeed
It's like a watercolour forming
Between the pages of a dream

And it's calling you
It's calling me
It's calling everyone to be

In a future world with an astrogirl
Where one on one is all you need
In a future world with an astrogirl
One on one is all you need

A strange experience has started
Between her molecules and me
It's like disease between us forming
From obsolete technology
And it's calling you
It's calling me
It's calling everyone to be

In a future world with an astrogirl
Where one on one is all you need
In a future world with an astrogirl
The sky goes on and on for you and me

The sky goes on and on for you and me
The sky goes on and on for you and me

In a future world with an astrogirl
There'll be no obstacles you'll see
Cos we'll be making friends with the superman
Where the sky goes on and on for you and me

The sky goes on and on for you and me
The sky goes on and on for you
The sky goes on and on
