

Sugababes, Back Down

I like my man rough
I like my man tough
But he's gotta be smooth
When he giving my love

I like my man clean
Like the cut of his jeans
It's like a long vine
Take a minute for me

He gotta smell good
Treat me like a man should
Keeps his head trim low
He is a friend of my soul

He keeps me secure
Makes me feel safe
And you have to touch me
You have to be really bad

"My baby don't back down
My baby don't back down
Because he's all right
Because he's all right

My baby don't back down
My baby don't back down
Because he's all right
Because he's all right"

I like my man sexy
I like my man made
He knows what I want
He's the ying to my yang

I like my patient
And his body real tight
Never keeps me waiting
That's just what I like

See these boys are no good
'Cos I need a real man
Someone who can keep me
In his palm of his hand

He's gotta treat me right
Never do me wrong
Better know how to please me
And turn me on

"I know I never back down
My baby never back down
Because he's all right
Because he's all right

No, my baby don't back down
My baby don't back down
Because he's all right

I like my man cool
Much cooler than ice
And if I did need him
I won't have to blink twice (blink twice)

He gives me kisses by the hours
When he brings me flower
I never felt so sweet
When he's around me
(He's gotta love me, he's gotta love me)

He makes me smile
He has to make me laugh
He has to make me smooth
Doesn't move too fast

He's the love of my life
He's all that I need
When he's with his friends
He's proud about me

""Cos my baby never back down
No, my baby don't down back down
Because he's all right
Because he's all right

No, my baby don't down back down
My baby don't back down
Because he's all right
Because he's all right""

Oh, yeah yeah

Break it down
Break it down, yeah (8x)
