

Sugar Ray, Shot Of Laughter

Summer, Summer, Summer
want an endless summer every monday it's all over town it's not complicated how I get around slipt under the boardwalk we woke with the sun woke up from a dream without anyone when you got nowhere to go and you're feeling really very alone there's one thing you outta know I say that life is just a dream that we chase after it's not exactly what it seems id like to buy the world another shot of laughter and buy my friends another drink

Chorus
Summer I want an endless summer s-s-summer
want an endless summer

I'd never thought I'd sing i'm sick of the sun I never thought I say I miss anyone it's only some heartache and I laugh and I fall there's one thing you outta know
I say that life is just a dream that we chase after

Summer I want an endless summer s-summer
I want an endless summer

I said that life is just a dream that we chase after it's not exactly what it seems
and buy my friends another drink
I say that life is just a dream that we chase after

Summer I want an endless summer
s-summer
