

Sugarland, Love Your Baby Girl

They say, this town's, stars stay up all night, well I don't know, can't see em, for the glow of the neon lights and its a long way from here, to the place where the home fires burn, well its two thousand miles and one left turn...

(Chorus:)

Dear Mom and Dad please send money, I'm so broke that it ain't funny, well I dont need much just enough to get me through,
please dont worry cause I'm alright, see I'm playing here at the bar tonight well this time I'm gonna make our dreams come true.
well I love you more than anything in the world, Love your baby girl black top, blue sky big town full of little white lies, well everybodys your friend, you can never be sure, they'll promise fancy cars and diamond rings and all sorts of shiny things, but girl you'll remember what your knees are for

(Chorus:)

Dear Mom and Dad please send money,
I'm so broke that it ain't funny,
well I dont need much just enough to get me through,
please dont worry cause I'm alright,
see I'm playing here at the bar tonight
well this time I'm gonna make our dreams come true.
well I love you more than anything in the world,
love your baby girl

I know that I'm on my way, when i can tell everytime I play, and i know it's worth all the dues I payed when I can write to you and say:

Dear Mom and Dad I'll send money I'm so rich that it ain't funny well it ought to be more than enough to get you through please dont worry casue I'm alright see I'm staying here at the Ritz tonight what do ya know we made our dreams come true and there are fancy cars and diamond rings but you know that they dont mean a thing well they all add up to nothing compared to you, but remember me in ribbons and curls, I still love you more than anything in the world,
Love your baby girl

Your baby girl
