

Sugarplum Fairy, My Saviour, My Secret

You're not the one I thought you'd be
A twofaced person is what I'll see
Did you change with time what's wrong with you

My roots has left the ground beneath
I've sold my belongings took back my keys
What will left behind is gone

And tonight the sky's are in disguise
I don't cry wolves just try to get by

So be my saviour, my secret
We'll reunite for a night
'Til there's light it's all right
So be my saviour, my secret
We'll reunite for a night
'Til there's light it's all right

Uh

Is it only water in your veins?
Your spineless behaviour drove me insane
Said you had to leave to achieve
Sunny days are in the air
Still winter winding blows in my hair
If you want to return you turn

'Cause tonight the skies are in disguise
I don't cry wolves just try to get by

So be my saviour, my secret
We'll reunite for a night
'Til there's light it's all right
So be my saviour, my secret
We'll reunite for a night
'Til there's light it's all right

But wherever I look there's the time you took
And I tear your pages from my book
And I'm still waiting for some new dreams to come
And oh I wanna go back home
But tonight the skies are in disguise

Oh

So be my saviour, my secret
We'll reunite for a night
'Til there's light it's all right
So be my saviour, my secret
We'll reunite for a night
'Til there's light it's all right

"I am yours and you are mine"
For a time we can reach back and find what we left behind
And then leave it behind

"I am yours and you are mine"
We can see that it's good to be free
They all let it all be for eternity

"I am yours and you are mine"
I wanna be in the sky but I'm stucked under ground
And I don't want to be tied
Let me fly around

"I am yours and you are mine"
We can see that it's good to be free
They all let it be for eternity

And you're not the one I thought you be
