

Sugarplum Fairy, When I'm Coming Home

I'm going away
'Cause I can't stay
Will see you some day
When I'm coming home
Just understand
Try comprehend
How it's our last chance
Am I coming home?
Then I'm coming home
This love feels like tears in my eyes
This time it's the last goodbye
And oh, my hand let go of the grip
'Cause I'm going on this ship
Yes I'm going on a trip
Sing with me somehow
Sing with me somehow
Just like yesterday
And wind I must fade
Away to my goals
Then I'm coming home
And if I will find
The end of the line
A peace of my mind
Then I'm coming home
Then I'm coming home
Our love feels like tears in our eyes
This time it's the last goodbye
And oh my love let go of the grip
Cause I'm going on this ship
Yes, I'm going on a trip
Sing with me somehow
Can you hear me now?
So love feels like tears in your eyes
So I had to say goodbye
Is this the end? Let go of my grip
'Cause I'm going on this ship
Yes I'm going on a trip
When I'm coming home
Then I'm coming home...
