

Suicidal Romance, Autumn (In Your Heart)

pain inside my heart is full of guilt i have for you
you are like a morning sun your light will make the beauty wake but i cant let myself to leave the pain between you an me soon the wind will blow your tears away and the light of day will come back to you with a cheerless smile you turn to me and look into my deep blue eyes but they are like a mirror of those cold gray skies again and somethings clouding our way there is an autumn in your heart
