

Suicidal Romance, In This Night (Lullaby)

Candles are around Your body
You feel the warm embrace of the life
That is leaving You so alone
You want to die tonight to leave
This world behind
No will to live no tears to cry
You wish to sleep in this night

Sleep and forget all Your pain
In Your better dream
In Your better dream
You are not alone
No will to live no tears to cry
Your soul is ready to go
To a better place
Where is no hate
Only love that will reborn
