Summoning, In Hollow Halls Beneath The Fells

Far over the misty mountains cold To dungeons deep and caverns old We must away ere break of day To seek the pale enchanted gold

The pines were roaring on the height The winds were moaning in the night The fire was red, it flaming spread The trees like torches blazed with light

The dwarves of yore made mighty spells While hammers fell like ringing bells In places deep where dark things sleep In hollow halls beneath the fells

For ancient king and elfish lord There many a gleaming golden horde They shaped and wrought, and light they caught To hide in gems on hilt of sword

Spoken: In the darkness bind them
