

Sunk Loto, Human Ashtray

I've got nothing left. It's plain to see
You wanted me for the best in every way
Scattered mind. Harder times
It doesn't matter now cos I resigned

Will I resign?
And I blame it all on you

Now we're falling down
Now we're falling down

You got an ill communication and it's bothering me
And you didn't stop complaining 'til you felt defeat
Cos I got no time, can you hold the line
If this goes any longer then I'm going to die

Well, I will die
And I blame it all on you

And now we're falling down

Nothing's left for you
