

Sunrise Avenue, Monk Bay

Im not moving too fast
Want to stay in the past
On these endless streets with your smell
This was once you and me
I was in totally
My fingers can still feel your hair
I keep on moving ahead
I might not get anywhere
I have nowhere to go
In the dark all alone
And I dont see no light anywhere
I have no one to hold
And Im feeling so cold inside
Oh please dont throw me away
Please dont throw me away
Its raining in monk bay
Lost and cold and alone
Got a house, not a home
Nothing is like it was before
Endless thoughts of the time
When you were only mine
They keep on streaming in my mind
I keep on moving ahead
I might not get anywhere
I have nowhere to go
Its raining and raining on me
Its cold and it hurts and its hard to believe
Ive looked every in Monk Bay
I cant find you
I have nowhere to go
