

Sunset Rubdown, Snake?s Got A Leg (Acoustic S

Snakes got a leg
Its way more than she can see
And youll get, youll get so many legs
That youll run away so well never ever see

I got a jacket
A coat full of contraband
And I got, I got so many high heels to sell
And I got, I got so many hands to hand em over with

And well eat like kings, oh

So oh, oh, oh
Got egged with bows and arrows
So oh, oh, oh
Hes got legs with bows and has em

I got chased by a hundred snakes in the morning
Got away from a hundred snakes in the night.
Sing, Back at my ears with their beaks on my mound
Theyre back on their wings, three feet on the ground.
The rats, and the rats, and the babies in the woodshed
Said, How can you live up so high in the mountains?
