

Sunshine Anderson, Vulnerability

Have you ever thought you were in love
Then found out later it wasn't
Your whole world shuts down
You even start to second guess yourself
It takes so long
To open up to someone again
But I think I'm ready to try

And do that
I'm ready to be kissed again
I'm ready to be held again
I'm ready to be loved again
Just please
Send me that word
Send me that for life
