

Sunshine Blind, Francis/Pepperland Laid Waste

To all the lost and troubled souls
All the ones past control
Ooo, you are sanity
You hold the hate and the energy

Heal me, save me
Please tell me I'm not crazy

If I should show, don't hesitate
You know the feelings, open the gate
Ooo, you are sanity
You hold the hate and the energy

Heal me, save me
I know it must sound crazy

When the darkness is cold and imprisoning
Francis, you are nothing but light to me

When I try to contain the wisps, they elude me
When I try to resist the tide, the waves soothe me

Heal me, save me
I know it must sound crazy

When my shadows conspire to frighten me,
Francis, you are nothing but light to me

Deliver me.
Deliver me.

I know my presence puts you ill at ease
Francis, stay away from those memories
I'm not calm to frighten you
Francis, I'll be nothing but light to you.

When the darkness is cold and imprisoning,
Francis, you can do anything.
When your shadows conspire to frighten you,
Francis, I'll be nothing but light to you.
