Super Furry Animals, Bass Tuned To D.E.A.D

Icy waters flow between us In shelf life shock in the morning I see rivers split to deltas And trickle into the ocean

With my bow and my arrow I will aim towards my atlas And where I hit I'll go And in my chosen location I will croon a sorry sermon And tune my bass to D.E.A.D. Ooooh

Live volcanoes turn to craters When their egos turn into spacedust Teleport me from this vacuum I've some contraband information

With my bow and my arrow I will aim towards my atlas And where I hit I'll go And in my chosen location I will croon a sorry sermon And tune my bass to D.E.A.D. Ooooh

La la la la la la Just get out of my space! (X8)

With my bow and my arrow I will aim towards my atlas And where I hit I'll go And in my given location I will croon a sorry sermon And tune my bass to L.U.V.?
