

Super Furry Animals, Venus And Serena

[Raised by wolves until the age of two, my closest childhood friends and confidants were my 2 pet
Son:

Father, father I have sinned
I dunno where to begin
Give me words of advice
Ill save em up for a clear day.

Father:

Keep your eye upon the ball
Write your thoughts upon the wall
Theres some words advice
Save em up for a clear day.

Venus and Serena understand.

Flushing meadows down the stream
Living life as though its a dream
Eat the future today
Dont save it up for a rainy day

Holy bombs make holy holes
Holy holes make homeless moles
Take the turtle and hair
Dont run around when you can walk there

Venus and Serena understand

Son:

Father, Father, Father,
Cant you see?
Im a walking tragedy
Father, father, father
When I look to the past
I never realised that it wouldnt last

Venus and Serena understand

Father:

Ive one final thing to say:
Im not your father anyway
Found you under a stone
Left outside by the wolves one day
