

Superbutt, Broken Nose

Hold it, just stop for a minute
You got it all wrong, now put that down
Before the boogiemán comes to get it
Stop that, hold on for a minute
You got that wrong, all the way long
It burns your hands, just drop it!

All sighs
God just turned off the lights
All the rights
Are reserved for the house, you're knocked out, and

Now your nose is bleeding
Drips on your innocent believing
Now your nose is bleeding
Too bad you get no compensation

Cut that, slow down for a minute
You know it's not right, just put that down
Before the boogiemán comes to get it
Stay out, step aside for a minute
Pull it back, you're on the wrong track
Read the signs and stop it!

All sighs
God just turned off the lights
All the rights
Are reserved for the house, you're knocked out, and

Now your nose is bleeding
Drips on your innocent believing
Now your nose is bleeding
Too bad you get no compensation

Too bad you won't get anything in return
Look, you're bleeding, but you never learn
This trip of yours is nothing new
Too bad we are all following you

All sighs
God just turned off the lights
All the rights
Are reserved for the house, you're knocked out, and

Now your nose is bleeding
Drips on your innocent believing
Now your nose is bleeding
Too bad you won't get anything in return
Now your nose is bleeding
Drips on your innocent believing
Watch your trouble exceeding
Too bad you get no compensation
