

Superdrag, Remain Yer Strange

she once in awhile does everything all for denial.
i don't understand. isn't it good? hope in your hand.
and i don't wanna hear about how everything is different now.
are you ever going to change?
i hope you always remain. remain yer strange.

she's sitting at home. says all she can over the phone.
i don't wanna go. but i can't do that if she don't say no.
i hope you always remain. remain yer strange. remain yer strange.

and i won't ever go. i found you once you know.
when all is said and done. girl you're the only one.
remain yer strange. remain yer strange.
