

Superdrag, Safe & Warm

bottles on the windowsill. they've got a tale to tell.
and i can't put it any other way. i just wanna stay right here in your arms.
'til the morning comes i'll keep you safe from harm.
you've been mine for so long now.
seems like i've forgotten how to want anyone but you to love me.
i just wanna stay right here in your arms.
and i'll feel satisfied just to know i'm safe and warm.

what do i have to do to make you realize?
the light that shines on you is too bright for the sky.
them bottles on the windowsill. there's a broken heart they'll never heal.
and i can't put it any other way.
i just wanna stay right here in your arms.
'til the morning comes. i'll be safe and warm.
