

Superflea, The Modern Approach

I made a promise to myself we'd be together someday to think I spent all those months alone
'cos time is not our friend this ride is slow and yet so fast but this just can't go on I've got to be with you a little more

I know things need to be different I know that all too well..
I guess I'll come there and hang out until some things start to change I said I don't but it's a lie
it took me by surprise..
I've got to be with you
a little more

these are the mistakes that I made
